

Christmas Wishlist

Project background & description

Once again, we've gathered a list of Christmas wishes from children all over Armenia, but this year, we're focusing on displaced kids. These children have experienced a very difficult year. Their new year 2023 started under blockade. And two months ago, they were forced from their homes. As these children and their families work to build new lives in Armenia, we want to bless them with Christmastime surprises.

As usual, most of the wishes children have shared with us are humble in nature and small in budget. We want to make as many dreams as possible come true. So this is how it works: we'll present the wishes one at a time, and see how many we can fulfill by New Year's Day! You ready?
